

CV Tudehope, Marcus

Name	Marcus Tudehope (M)
Summary	Tudehope is a Programme Manager and Evaluation Specialist with more than 10 years' experience in the development and urban planning sector, spanning NGOs, government, private consultancies and the UN. Extensive experience in conducting research, monitoring and evaluation in insecure settings where access to the field is restricted. Proven effective management of complex development projects in multi-cultural, multi-lingual settings. Strong background in proposal writing, fundraising and donor liaison, securing contributions totalling $31 million in 2017/18, collaborating with donors such as the EU, Denmark, JICA, USAID, DFID and India among others. Focus on evidence based advocacy and the development of tangible actionable recommendations to improve the effectiveness of interventions.
Nationality	Australian
Language proficiency	English: Fluency; written and spoken. French: Advanced proficiency: written and spoken. Farsi: Advanced proficiency: spoken Dutch: Basic proficiency: written and spoken
Education/Qualifications	2013, Australian National University; Masters of Applied Anthropology & Participatory Development. 2010, Curtin University Western Australia; Bachelor of Urban & Regional Planning. 2012, Project Management Institute; Certified Associate of Project Management.
Professional certifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advanced Security in the Field Certification. United Nations Department of Safety & Security Afghanistan (2014) • Personal Security & Communications in Emergencies. REDR Australia (2013) January 2018 – Present, United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat) (Kabul, Afghanistan), Data Analysis & Enumeration Expert (Remote) Primary activities and outputs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Analysis of quantitative data from the Kabul Informal Settlements (KIS), to elucidate living conditions and inform programming • Review of relevant literature on recent interventions and studies of living conditions in the KIS • Review of recent developments in the legal and policy framework that influences the KIS • Review of recent political developments including the recent influx of returnees from Pakistan and the influence on living conditions in the KIS
Employment Record/Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Formulation of recommendations to inform the design of future programs to improve living standards and tenure security in the KIS 2015 – 2018, United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat) (Kabul, Afghanistan), Programme Manager, Local Integration of Vulnerable Excluded & Uprooted People (LIVE-UP) Primary activities and outputs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strategic programme management of the LIVE-UP project, providing shelter, basic services and tenure security for populations of Internally Displaced People (IDPs) and returned refugees in Afghanistan • Leading in the technical and strategic management of project design, work planning, budgeting, procurement, and impact monitoring of project activities in the field; • Overseeing effective and efficient execution of project activities by working in close collaboration with the relevant institutions and project teams, at the national and local levels;

- Coordination of results-based monitoring, evaluations and outcome-based reporting, including ensuring proper baselines, mid-term monitoring, and final evaluations were completed;
- Provide advisory services to national and local institutions, including support to policy processes, technical advice and support to seminars, trainings and on-the-job capacity development in urban land, planning, housing and basic services
- Leading in building and maintaining strong relationships and coordination with partners (UN, government, I/NGO) at city, national, regional and global levels;
- Supporting improved coordination of UN activities in Afghanistan, including contributing to the UNDAF and joint integrated work plans with program-related inputs and monitoring

2013 – 2015, Assess Transform Reach Consulting (ATR) (Kabul, Afghanistan), Project Director

Primary activities and outputs:

- Development, coordination, implementation and monitoring of projects with a focus on conflict resolution, community building, justice, politics and participatory development in urban and rural Afghanistan
- Preparation of proposals, concept notes and business offers for clients including; UNDP, GIZ, USAID, Aga Khan Foundation, Helevetas, US Embassy, Australian Embassy, Norwegian Refugee Council
- Monitoring & review of security conditions nationwide and analysis of operational implications
- Design of qualitative and quantitative data collection tools
- Qualitative & quantitative data analysis
- Development and implementation of training curricula for national staff

2012 – 2013, Sahnakum Teang Tnaut Phnom Penh (Cambodia), Project Manager

Primary activities and outputs:

- Management of development projects with a focus on urban poverty alleviation, including measures to improve public health, tenure security, community resilience and urban poor settlement upgrading programs
- Taking a leading role in the evidence based advocacy of the urban poor, independently and in cooperation with wider national and international anti-evictions campaigns
- Design and implementation of research instruments & data collection tools to be utilized in urban poor settlements, including Participatory Urban Appraisal, Appreciative Inquiry and large-scale participatory enumeration
- Review of Legislation and Policy for its implications on the urban poor, contributing to the discourse through the production of reports into specific issues
- Development of Training of Trainers (TOT) curricula for research and community mobilization activities in urban poor settlements
- Coordination of a multidisciplinary, multicultural team
- Capacity Building of national staff

2011 – 2012, Global Citizens for Sustainable Development (Bangalore, India), Project Manager

Primary activities and outputs:

- Management of development projects, with a focus on environmental sustainability and improving living conditions in impoverished Dalit villages in rural Karnataka
- Coordinating vocational education and training programs to provide livelihood opportunities for women in rural Karnataka
- In depth qualitative and quantitative research with rural women and men to inform the design of domestic labour saving interventions
- Coordination of the VEDIKE 'eco-residential' school project
- Proposal writing and fund-raising activities (both internationally and domestically within India)
- Coordinator of 'WEBUILD 2011' volunteer construction program in Mallasandra village, rural Karnataka, including promotions, international fund raising, liaising with donors, grant application writing and management of the design and construction process

- Coordination of an international multidisciplinary, multilingual team

2006 –2010, City of Canning (Perth, Australia), Urban Planning Officer

Primary activities and outputs:

- Management of the Development Assessment process, (residential, industrial and commercial applications), industrial and residential subdivisions, Town Planning Scheme amendments, providing guidance to applicants regarding the development approvals process
- Contributing to urban redevelopment and other strategic urban planning initiatives
- Facilitation of public engagement workshops in the formation of Local Housing and Commercial Strategies
- Working with a multidisciplinary team, liaising with applicants, developers and other government entities

2017. UN-Habitat Afghanistan 'Coming in from the Margins: Ending Displacement & Increasing Inclusion in Afghan Cities' <https://unhabitat.org/books/coming-in-from-the-margins-ending-displacement-increasing-inclusion-in-afghan-cities/>

2013. Sahmakum Teang Tnaut'A Tale of Two Cities; Review of the Development Paradigm in Phnom Penh' http://teangtnaut.org/wp-content/uploads/2013/01/TaleofTwoCities_STT_August2012_WEB.pdf

2013. The Global Urbanist 'Mapping the Urban Poor, 12 Good Reasons' <http://globalurbanist.com/2013/03/05/mapping-the-urban-poor>

2011. The Global Urbanist 'An Insider's View of Community Organizing in Quezon City Slums' <http://globalurbanist.com/2011/03/15/an-inside-view-of-community-organising-in-quezon-city-slums>

Publications